Rules.

1. In view to arrangements being made for allotting stalls, it is requested that exhibitors will notify to the undersigned, four days prior to the Show, what exhibits they intend to enter and for what prize they intend to compete.

2. Competitors must sort their own articles and arrange them in the appointed places before midnight of the 12th January 1912.

3. No prize shall be awarded unless there are at least three competitors for it, except in cases of rare excellence, when the Judges will use their own discretion.

4. All exhibits in classes I and II sent for competition must be bona fide the produce of, or have been raised by exhibitors, and unless otherwise specified, must have been grown in or about Bangalore. The Judges may withhold any prize until proof of these conditions be produced. Contractors bringing up fruits and vegetables for competition in their own name are disqualified.

5. Exhibitors will be provided with free tickets, after sufficient enquiry, and such tickets will not be issued after 12 noon on the 12th idem.

6. It shall be competent for the Judges to reduce or withhold the amount of prizes, if, in their opinion, the articles exhibited do not merit the full sum awarded.

7. The Show will be closed at 6 P.M. the same day. Exhibitors may then remove their articles.

8. Articles sent for competition are not to be sold before 10 A.M. on the day of the Show.

With a view to make the show more educative, the local artisans will be invited to show their workmanship and prizes will be awarded both for their productions and demonstrations on the spot, in order that it may not only create an impetus among the working classes but may also raise the tone and standard of efficiency of their productions.
